

Canadian Beef Breeds Council- Technical Forum

In association with;
Genome Alberta, Livestock Gentec and CBIC

Salon DD1, London Convention Centre, London, Ontario
August 14, 2018 at 1:00pm (EDT)

13:00 – 13:30	Welcome and Opening Comments <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Genome Alberta and Ontario Genomics- Canadian Beef Breeds Council
13:30 – 13:55	Present Research and Results in Animal Breeding and Genetics <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Angela Canovas, Assistant Professor, University of Guelph
13:55 – 14:20	Getting Genomics Working for Commercial Cattle <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Graham Plastow, Prof./CEO Livestock Gentec at Univ. of Alberta
14:20 – 14:45	Utilizing Genetic Evaluations – Producer Focus <ul style="list-style-type: none">- PJ Budler, TheCattleMarket.net
14:45 – 15:00	Coffee and Networking Break
15:00 – 15:25	The Evolution of Genetic Evaluations in Beef Cattle Globally <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Kajal Devani, Canadian Angus Association- Bruce Holmquist, Canadian Simmental Association
15:25 – 15:50	Advances in Genetic Improvement in the Canadian Dairy Industry <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Mike Lohuis, Vice President Genetics R&D, Semex
15:50 – 16:15	Data and its Importance to Genetic Improvement <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Mike McMorris, General Manager, AgSights
16:15 – 17:00	Panel Discussion/Open Forum <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Facilitator: Michael Latimer- CBBC
17:00	Close