

THINGS TO DO IN LONDON DURING CANADIAN BEEF INDUSTRY CONFERENCE

BREWERY TOURS

Labatt Brewery

Address: 150 Simcoe St., London | Phone: 519.850.8687 | www.labatt.com

Labatt Brewery Tours run all year round...and MUST be pre-booked by email londontour@labatt.com or by phone. The tour takes about 2 hours to complete and includes a full guided tour of the brewery and sampling.

The tour costs $12 per person (cash only) and everyone on the tour MUST wear closed toe, closed heel and flat footwear (running shoes preferred).

Toboggan Brewing Company

Address: 585 Richmond St., London | Phone: 519.433.2337 | tobogganbrewingcompany.com

The Toboggan Brewing Co. invites you to taste their pioneering beers, enjoy our local food and more importantly have a good time doing it. Massive wooden ramps were built, buckskin moccasins adorned and toboggan blankets put on order for the new craze. The local press coverage jubilantly reported all of the latest on the Toboggan scene; 485 foot long double chute runs, lit by lanterns attended by over 75 tobogganists per night. 'One of the finest slides in the Dominion', they would confidently remark. Contact contact@tobogganbrewingcompany.com to find out more on how your event would be a great fit here.

London Brewing Co-operative

Address: 623 Dundas St., London | Email: info@londonbrewing.ca | www.londonbrewing.ca

The London Brewing Co-operative is a craft brewery located in London's Old East Village. We place quality over quantity and believe that great beers start with superior ingredients. That's why we choose the finest local and organic malts and hops available. Ours is a beer that celebrates the hard work and wisdom of local farmers. It's a beer that values relationships, cooperation, and community. It's a beer that recognizes the finite nature of our home planet, and the need to make sustainable choices in everything we do.
